

Media Contact: Ty Johnston
(305) 491-6015

For Immediate Release

Paul S. Morton Scholarship Foundation celebrates their Annual Black Tie Gala for the first time in Atlanta!

Jerry and Terry Lynn will be among the many guests to showcase their Versatile Abstracts and Realistic Works

Friday, February 20, 2009

Atlanta, GA –Media Life Group is proud to announce Paul S. Morton Scholarship Foundation to host their first Black Tie Gala in Atlanta. The identical artistic twins, Jerry and Terry Lynn will be special guests recognized for their paintings and passion of demonstrating their Memphis, Tennessee upbringing; into their own creation of distinctive canvas portraits.

The spotlight will be shared with Electronic Violinist Ken Ford who will be performing LIVE alongside recording artists PJ Morton and Ann Nesby. The key speaker will be Dr. Dennis Kimbro who is a phenomenal entrepreneur, educator and best selling author of many book titles. Dr. Kimbro has a new coming book release entitled “Have vs. Have Not: What Black Millionaires Know that others no not”.

Paul S. Morton Scholarship Foundation is celebrating 20 years of academic excellence with special guests and private invites on Friday February 20, 2009 at the Georgia International Conventional Center located near Hartsfield-Jackson Atlanta International Airport. The foundation has awarded over $500,000 to scholars over their reign and now awarding students who attend primary schools.

For directions to the location, please contact www.gicc.com

Additional information regarding Paul S. Morton Scholarship Foundation may be obtained by logging onto www.psmsf.org